King

King: A Playa-Born Legend Forged in the spirit of ancient chivalry and reborn for the dust-laced dreamscape of Burning Man, King is a Mutant Vehicle that commands attention and reverence. Inspired by the age of armored knights and noble quests, its design evokes the grandeur of a roaming fortress—majestic, mysterious, and unmistakably regal. This two-story marvel blends medieval fantasy with modern luxury. The lower deck offers a shaded sanctuary from the sun and wind, while the upper level—where the vehicle is driven—provides panoramic views of the Playa, like a captain steering from the battlements of a moving castle. Inside, an air-conditioned, dust-free chamber awaits, offering rare comfort in the heart of chaos—a true throne room for weary wanderers. Whether you're embarking on a sunrise crusade or hosting a moonlit gathering, King is more than transportation. It's a statement. A story. A sovereign experience.

Kissy Fish

A sparkling, walking fish covered with holographic scales and giant pneumatic red lips, big kinetic rear legs that crawl along the playa, and pairs of waving fins and tails.

La Rana Hypnótica

A hypnotic frog that glides across the playa. Come closer and be hypnotized by its colorful skin and glowing lights. Dusty burners can take a rest and ride on its back and up in its dapper top hat.

LilyPod

LilyPod is a LilyPad, comfy, green, brightly lit. Come lounge!

LOVEGUARD TOWER69

We are LOVEGUARD TOWER69, a mutant vehicle in the shape of a California-style lifeguard tower but rolling across the dust of Black Rock City. Born from the poetry of ordinary things, this art car transforms a simple lifeguard booth into a surreal symbol of presence, connection, and care. Out of place and out of time, LOVEGUARD TOWER69 is here to save you from the desert of loneliness. Yes, it lights up. Yes, it's interactive. And yes, it's unforgettable.

Magnolia Thunderpussy

Magnolia ia a 21 foot Pangolin.

Mayan Warrior

Mayan Warrior is the result of a collaborative project that has united artists, craftsmen, photographers, designers, technologists, architects and musicians from Mexico City and Northern California. The project's original intent was to present to the world the incredible ascent of contemporary Mexican electronic music while paying respect to the deep and ancient sources from which that visual and auditory culture had grown. Both light and sound are curated by some of the world's most prominent artists to transport participants to the very origins of the culture — and to a new understanding of contemporary electronic expression.

Melton John

Papi Gallo

Papi Gallo is a passion project that was originally built for Burning Man 2023 – Animalia and consists of a 1984 Honda Goldwing trike and a motorcycle trailer mutated to become a rooster skull towing a chicken coop. It is quiet, it looks great during the day and absolutely majestic at night.

Playa Penetrator

An all aluminum hop-on hop-off MV open to all needy stragglers in dusty Deep Playa Born of a 1984 Chevy P-30 StepVan, the body was totally removed and a custom aluminum superstructure was designed by Emil Goellner ....Burningman friend since 2006 from L.A., and executed by metal artist James Digeorgio in Fort Myers, Florida. Flag us down while we're cruising the City and jump on !!

Playatech Flaming Castle

The castle was once a 1991 Volvo sedan with 277,000 miles on it, chopped behind the cab by some weld-happy Burners to become a renegade mutant at BM14, then sat rusting until Sunshine bought it for $500 in May 2016. Then sat some more until he and Glimmer went crazy on it for a month with paint, wood, fabric, and lights. Thanks to help from friends (and thousands of $$ in repairs, upgrades, and decor), it ran 10 days on playa in 2016 with no problem larger than a squeaky fan belt. It gets some upgrades every year, and serves as Playatech's official furniture delivery vehicle. As usual for Playatech, Sunshine did the engineering and wrenching. For everything pretty from the paint to the fabrics, thank Glimmer, Playatech's VP of Branding since BM 05. Yes, she really used to burn our logo on your furniture with a fire brand, as a thank you for that $5 donation to the arts that you thought was a payment to our company. Company? What company?!!!! It's a TRAP!!!! With a 5 mph racing team...

Prodigal Swan

Why a swan? Why prodigal? Hell if we know. Maybe it's the parable—left home, blew it all on bad decisions, came back a monster. Maybe Beezus was the prodigal son, and this is its “screw you, Dad” phase. A 2016 crowdfunder rap bragged, “Word to your moms, I came to drop bombs / I got more feathers than the bible's got psalms.” Translation: it's back, it's pissed, and it's got a flamethrower. Redemption's for suckers—this Swan's here to burn shit down.

Proto

Proto is a fire breathing, music having, robotic dragonfly. Reach out if you would like us to help stoke your event with fire and music. We love bringing our swarm of insect art cars to your art installation, playa wedding, or whatever else you have planned.

Red Rooster Ranch

The Red Rooster Ranch art car celebrates the fun and frivolity of Nevada's tawdry past and present association with saloons and Cat Houses. Come join us for a ride and enjoy a libation in our tiny saloon!

Rexan the Psychadelic Safari Car

Rexan is a safari-themed psychedelic experience on a mission to bring African social traditions and celebration to the playa. This ultimate safari experience takes daring citizens on wildlife tours of BRC, from deep playa to various watering holes.

Rocket n Roll

Our Playa Rock & Roll seekers again will experience the ultimate thrill of a life time as they kiss Mick Jagger's ruby red lips. You will be shocked & amazed at the contortions performed by fellow burners as they straddle & perform a variety of indescribable “acts” on our humongous Rolling Stone's wagging tongue. It is here that the juxtaposition of entertainer & fool will intertwine, morph & blur. Come one, come all — you assuredly will find shelter in the rhythm of good old fashioned Rock & Roll pulsating on the Playa. We will have contests – we will have side show dance parties! Is it the trickster or the fool who will lure us back to the Classics that have entertained us for so many decades? It matters not, as we merge into the great communal sound extravaganza known as Rock & Roll.

SABOKU

45' metal dog made of LED polygons and sub-woofers. Slow down. Enjoy the Burn. And please, obey the 5 MPH speed limit.

bungalow oasis.

The Manbassador

A small effigy of The Man, with a pooper and a lot of love to give.

The Parlor

The Parlor is a mobile Victorian living room that transforms into a flaming/bumping dance party when parked.

The Playa Piano Bar

Mobile Dueling Piano Bar on a scissor lift.

---

The Struggle Bus

The Struggle Bus is a unique art car, also known as a mutant vehicle, that we're building to take to Burning

Man, as well as other festivals and community events. If you're new to the concept, art cars are custom vehicles transformed into mobile pieces of interactive art, designed to inspire, connect, and create unforgettable experiences. Our mission is to make The Struggle Bus a safe haven for those in need of a little extra comfort along their journey. With a cozy and colorful steampunk-meets-cyberpunk design, this mobile sanctuary will offer a welcoming space to relax. We also plan to provide practical essentials like goggles, masks, and lights for those who find themselves unprepared in the harsh desert or elsewhere.

The Taco Disco

A 16' long, 8' tall yellow crispy taco, that dispenses disco and sometimes tacos.

The Temple of the Eclipse

Behold The Temple of the Eclipse, a dazzling new mutant vehicle making its grand debut on the Playa!

This ornate masterpiece is a rolling tribute to the awe-inspiring beauty of both lunar and solar eclipses. Adorned with hand-carved wood panels in a rich gold finish, it features a vibrant red shade-mash canopy and intricate 3D-layered designs. The sides shimmer with celestial motifs—blue moons and a radiant sun—framed by red velvet curtains, while a starry projector and “Stairway to Heaven” add a magical touch. With its glowing lights and elegant structure, this vehicle is set to captivate all who witness the cosmic dance it celebrates!

The Ticket Booth

The Ticket Booth: From Prank to Playa Legacy What started as a playful prank at Burning Man in the late '90s has evolved into a full-blown art car and social experiment — The Ticket Booth. Part rolling satire, part portable party, and part inside joke, it now distributes the only BM Org issued drink tickets to all you favorite big parties, and of course, skip the line passes to Orgy Dome (sponsored by Bay Area tech money), all while concealing a self-powered DJ booth with a serious, bass-heavy sound system. Created by Edgar Blazona, a long-time member of The Office of Permits and Regulations, The Ticket Booth is both a nod to Burning Man's early culture and a prank that's been running for more than two decades. When “open for business,” the booth thumps with hip-hop—style breaks, bass house tracks, and carefully curated sets from resident DJs SkinnyFAT, D2, and DJ Dato along with guest Bay Area breakbeat artists and crews while distributing this year's tickets to participating clubs.

The Tiki Lounge

Join us on the Tiki Lounge for great tunes, stimulating conversations to make magical memories ✨.

Thor

Thor is built on a 29' city bus frame to look like the Norse deity Thor flying across the playa, adorned with a large red cape shading the top deck and a massive aluminum helmet and wings, giant LED-backlit sea serpent Jörmungandr on one side and custom-built sound system and LED panel on the other.

Uuna Ahi

Uuna Ahi loosely translates to “lots of fire”. It's a giant fire shooting Moai with flaming palm trees. Uuna started its life as a flatbed trailer in which we added a custom removable drive train and engine from a riding mower. If you see us, come hop on!

WATERHOLE "MOBLE BAR"

ARTIST STEVE EBBY
EBERHARDT SENDS 5 DAYS
REPAINTING THE BAR TOP
TO MATCH THAT YEARS
THEME FOR THE PAST 15 YEARS

Weighted Companion Cubes

The Aperture Science Enrichment Institute reminds you that the Weighted Companion Cube will never threaten to stab you and, in fact, cannot speak. You should not worry about that time when you dropped one in the incinerator. They are sentient you know. It's just that we have a LOT of them. And now two of them will be at Burning Man! If we get the second one rolling.

XUZA

XUZA is a two-story, mobile sound stage and art car that transforms any stretch of playa into an electrifying, otherworldly dance floor. With massive pro audio, mesmerizing pixel-mapped lighting, and custom CGI “eyes” that hypnotically follow the crowd, XUZA blurs the line between performer and participant, inviting DJs, singers, aerialists, fire dancers, and flow artists to join the show while the dance floor pulses on deck and in the dust. For its 10th year on playa, XUZA arrives with upgraded fire effects, an immersive visual experience, and the signature LED lyra hoop—an aerial ring glowing with thousands of pixel-mapped LEDs, framing stunning aerialist and flow performances. From deep, soulful house to peak-hour burners, XUZA surrounds you in a soundtrack and spectacle you'll never forget. When the glowing eyes emerge from the dust, you've found the playa's heartbeat.

Zeong

Meet Zeong, the coolest hamster-powered ride on the Playa! This dazzling, neon-lit Gundam-inspired vehicle is piloted by a tiny hamster with a giant personality, zooming across the dusty Playa landscape. With its vibrant red, green, and blue lights twinkling like a cosmic disco, and a massive, glowing figure standing tall in the background, Zeong is the ultimate fusion of cute and colossal. The open door reveals the hamster captain at the helm, ready to lead the charge in this wild, otherworldly adventure!
